How to Do the Bargello Technique:

To Clarify:

Adhere the 1/2" strips in a repetitive pattern to completely cover the Basic White cardstock making sure no white is peeking through.

- Hello Irresistible Designer Series Paper (DSP) (retired) – 11 assorted ½" strips at least 6" long, and 2" square for behind sentiment, and ¾" x 4 ¼" for inner layer.
- Basic White for Bargello Technique – (2 pieces) – 4 ¼" x 5 ½" and 4" square
- Envelope Flap 2 ¼" x 6"

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Follow instructions above to make Bargello Technique and trim finished 4" square down to 3 7/8" square.
- Prepare Basic White card base. Burnish score lines with bone folder. With Tombow Glue adhere the "book binding" section to card back so it doesn't open.
- With Stampin' Seal, adhere Pretty Peacock cardstock pieces to card front. Also adhere 7/8" x 3 7/8" piece of DSP to Pretty Peacock on book binding section.
- You have a choice: 1) With your die cut machine, die cut the circle from your Bargello layer. It will be difficult, run the die back and forth multiple times. You may need an Exacto knife to cut through all the layers. Save the cut-out circle for use inside the card. OR 2) You can forgo the die cut circle and adhere your Bargello layer to the Pretty Peacock layer.
- If you chose #1 option: Adhere the small 2" square piece of DSP to the front Pretty Peacock layer. Then use Dimensionals to raise up the Bargello layer.
- Affix the "Best Wishes" Ephemera on Mini Dimensionals in the circle opening. Finish with embellishments of your choice or 3 Rhinestones.
- With Pretty Peacock Ink, stamp the Happy Anniversary sentiment inside the card.
- Adhere and trim the DSP for the Basic White Envelope to match.
